Dedication

Bishop Reed discusses education problems with Univ. of Okla. professor, Doctor Reeves, and Mr. Al Fiegel, members of the Diocesan Board of Education.

Most Reverend Victor J. Reed, Bishop of Oklahoma City and Tulsa.

We dedicate this volume of the CHI RHO to our Bishop who has always shown a deep interest in our school; and to Reverend Father Monahan, our principal, who is leaving McGuinness this year to become superintendent of diocesan schools in Oklahoma.

Rev. David Monahan, principal.

During his eleven years as principal of MHS, Father has been an inspiration to both students and faculty. Concern for promotion and updating of educational methods, programs furthering student responsibility and self discipline, and other innovations designed to promote a truly Christian atmosphere have been initiated by him. We shall miss his cheery greeting and his sense of humor; and we wish him every success.

Father Monahan becomes acquainted with an Irish Shillalah.

Father Monahan congratulates outstanding students . . . and shares ideas with Mrs. Virginia Dobelbower over coffee and sandwiches.

Vicki Miles, newly elected governor of Girls' State, poses with Oklahoma Governor Dewey Bartlett.

Vice-principal, Mr. Neil Ginsterblum, makes like Dean Martin, surrounded by a bevy of beauties in the Junior-Senior lounge.

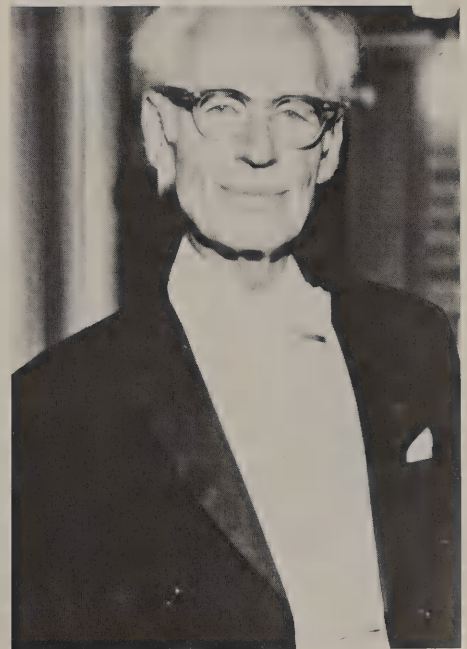

Students try out the video-tape machine, a new addition to the audio visual equipment.

Oklahoma Supreme Court Justice, William O. Berry, administers the oath of office to Vicki Miles, Governor of Girls' State, and to Marcia Mott of Marietta, Lt. Governor.

The faculty entertain the students with "Faculty Follies," a parody on student activities.

Dr. Guy Fraser Harrison conducted the Oklahoma City Symphony in a concert in MHS auditorium.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success

Vicki Miles, Governor David Hall, and Rick Ditmars, get the MHS Olympics underway with the lighting of the torch on the steps of the State Capitol.

Chris Miller goes into a trance as Susan Walker and Vicki Miles admire the bread that Sister Charlotte baked for the Olympic cooking contest.

Jim Grace and Mike Davis, "Irish Basketball"

Joan O'Brien is crowned "Our Winter Love" by Mike Davis.

Mixed emotions characterize this group of Student Council Representatives during the Olympic Opening Assembly.

tars" made the all-conference team.

Under the leadership of Ross Linneman a group of MHSers created this entry for the "Anything on Wheels" contest, sponsored by the Liberty National Bank. They won third place — $100.00 — for their bathroom on wheels. At left, Ross shows his glee over the outcome.

So . . . What's New?

The mighty males invade the press box.

Looks like somethin's cookin' in that huddle.

Here's a section of the Shamrock Pep Club, bright eyed and bushy tailed, at the Basketball Homecoming.

John Church identified unknown Characters for the Chi Rho. Janice Nowak came along "for the ride."

A juke box is being installed in the newly appointed Junior-Senior lounge.

Pot-Pourri

"Okay! Everyone for the safari, let's go."
That's John Mead on Miss Weer's VW.

Mrs. Cordelia Wilson and Mrs. Peggy Dearer show off the revised MHS dress code.

Phil Askew, Sister Joan Marie, Elaine Carey, and Mr. Geary Ellet keep tabs on the olympic hikers.

Could Tony Goetz be really deep in Time or News Week; or does the Social Studies center offer something more engrossing, if less educational?

This was the day we had winter.

Doctor Guy Fraser Harrison conducts the Oklahoma City Symphony in McGuinness auditorium.

Haemon begs Antigone not to risk her life for her brother's burial.

Judging the olympic cooking contest are: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bernard, restauranteurs; Mrs. Coble, OG&E Home Economist; and Mrs. Joseph Stank, Home Economics teacher.

Diane Brown freaks out in the comedy "Up the Down Staircase." Obviously Mike Rodriguez, David Eckroat, and David Hall couldn't care less.

STUDIES

Problems, Problems, Problems

Mrs. Kaye Jones' Math class gives her their "divided" attention.

Mr. Neely, O. C. University, Speech and Drama teacher, gives Debbie Bolka helpful hints on her cutting from "Death of a Salesman."

Mary Dolan is puzzled by a problem in Calculus.

Rick Pruitt and Roy Semtner must find Mike McQuaid's Debate speech rather amusing.

Mr. Herdman, substitute Math teacher takes David Walker over a rough spot in Calculus.

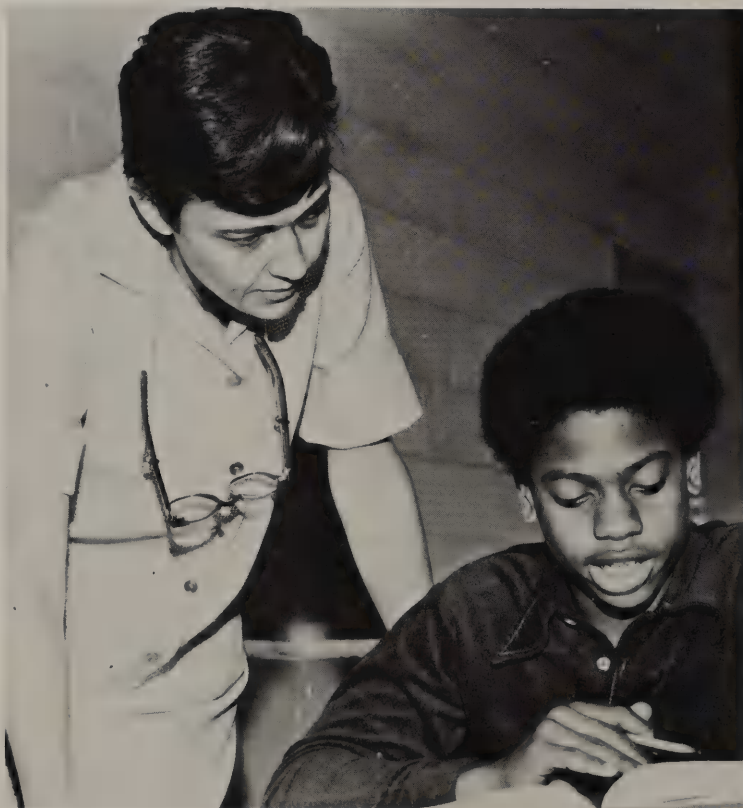

The Hum of Learning

Utilizing both sight and sound, Jerry Newhouse make use of the facilities available in the Language lab.

Debbie Boulware ponders a problem in Journalism.

Ronald Moon consults Mrs. Jones about a problem in Algebra.

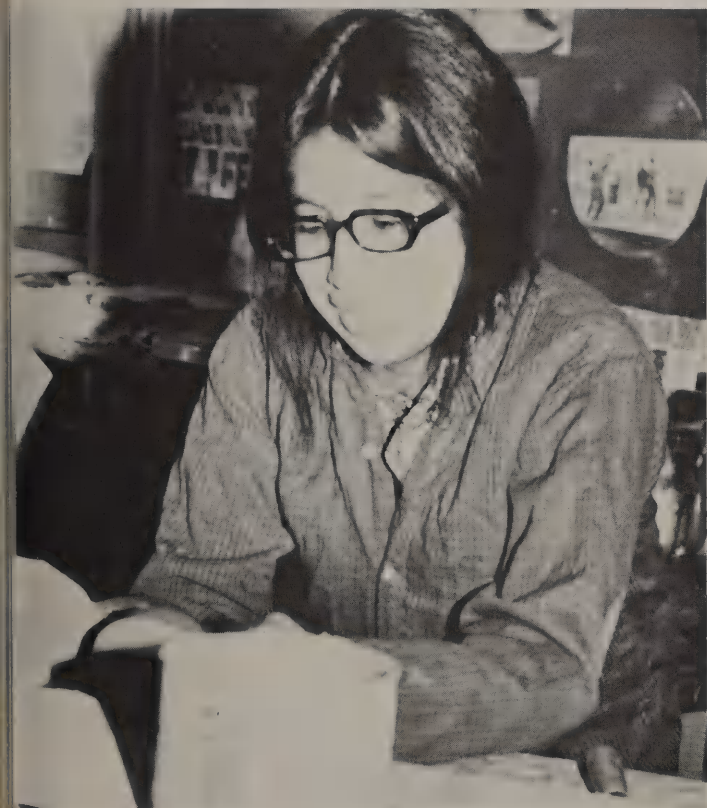

"That's it," says Larry Bachle. Larry is shooting a scene for "Mediocre Films, Inc." a production of the Western Literature class.

Freshmen Suzie Pansza and Monica Wolf relive the Okla. land run on the football field. Ann O'Brien (left), another Oklahoma History student, models the "Sooner look."

Judging by her smile, Art holds no terrors for Kate Cunningham.

Bill Bunting and Robert Richey explore the secrets of Chemistry.

Working on their "Crime and Punishment" LAP (Learning Activity Packet), Joe Rogers and Jose Hernandez discuss their core activities.

What's cooking in this small discussion group?

John Morgan and Tom Wolf are really studying — a rare scene in the cafeteria study hall.

Bill Hoey, on his way to a Calculus class, comes across Monica Marino leisurely sipping a soda by her locker.

Looks like Brian Cronin is getting more help than he needs from James White, Peggy Mink, and Nancy Thompson.

David Hall as Merchant Barsham and Hilda Wilds as Rachel in a scene from the Christmas "Star Song."

Judy Byrd, Stephanie Bunting, Debra Gardner, Lynn Tollett, and Anita Burleigh played the Chorus in "Antigone."

A scene from "Up The Down Staircase."

The Queen's Players strike a pose, as the school nurse (Anita Burleigh) reminds the unminding ones that a good breakfast makes good grades in "Up The Down Staircase."

Antigone's nurse (Diane Perkins) tries to console her.

Listening Is Believing

Patti Dennehy and Stephanie Bunting work on a History assignment.

David Hall and Mike Rodriguez attempt to memorize a Drama script.

A stag meeting featuring Steve Johnson, Tim Sloan, Dan Heinen, Peter Mui, and Frank Romero, a lowly Freshman. We wonder what important information Frank is gathering.

Bob Dodge escapes to "Wuthering Heights" in the English reading room.

This cheery group takes time out to demonstrate the symbol of peace.

Sami Gann hard at work.

Patty McLaughlin telling it like it is.

Melissa Ryan amused.

To Each His Own Reaction

Larry Montgomery and Peter Mui are obviously getting a bang out of English study.

Mike Morgan and John Reardon, waiting for what?

James Shriver and Mr. Allagree are rather amused at the discussion in Religion class.

An avalanche of paper work can't wipe the smiles from the faces of David Lukeman, Pat Smith, and Dave Chernicky.

Learning can take place anywhere as Mike Cox demonstrates in the cafeteria.

Evidently Mike Hamilton thinks this test is a cinch; but Debra Gardner, Jane Braun, and Diane Miller don't seem to be so sure.

Marilyn Cooksey and Margaret Henfling prefer the study area.

Meg Simms and Debbie Martinez, waiting for the bell to ring.

Typing teacher, Mr. Malone, diverts his attention from the class for a few moments.

Rick Ditmars seems to be the only one in action during this small group English discussion.

Roy Semtner, in what seems to be a precarious position.

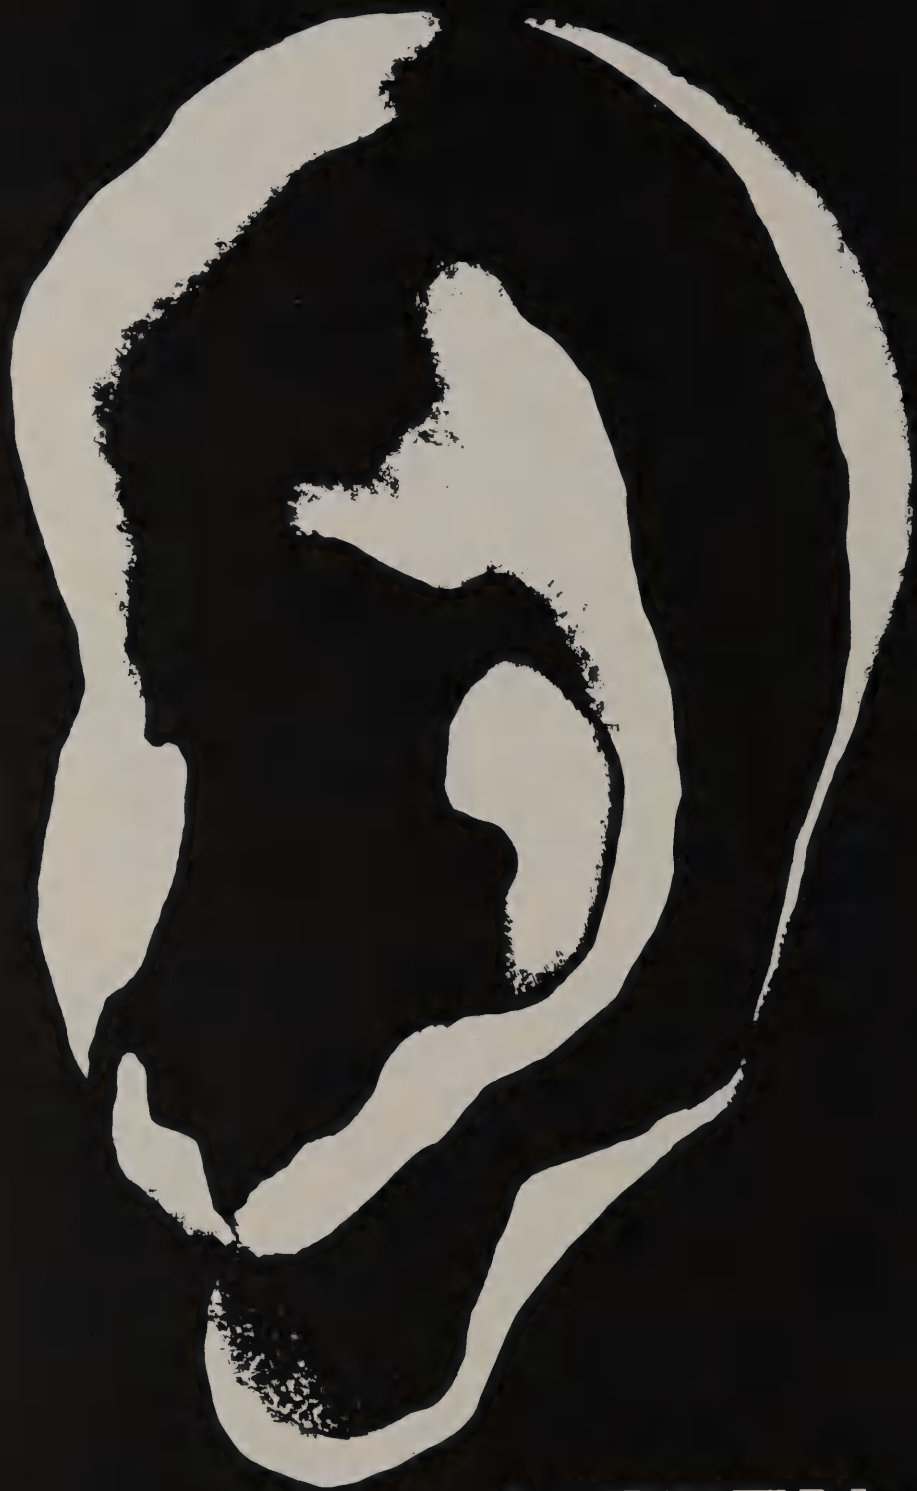

Drama students, Jim Trumbly and Joe Hansen, put together a set for "Star Song."

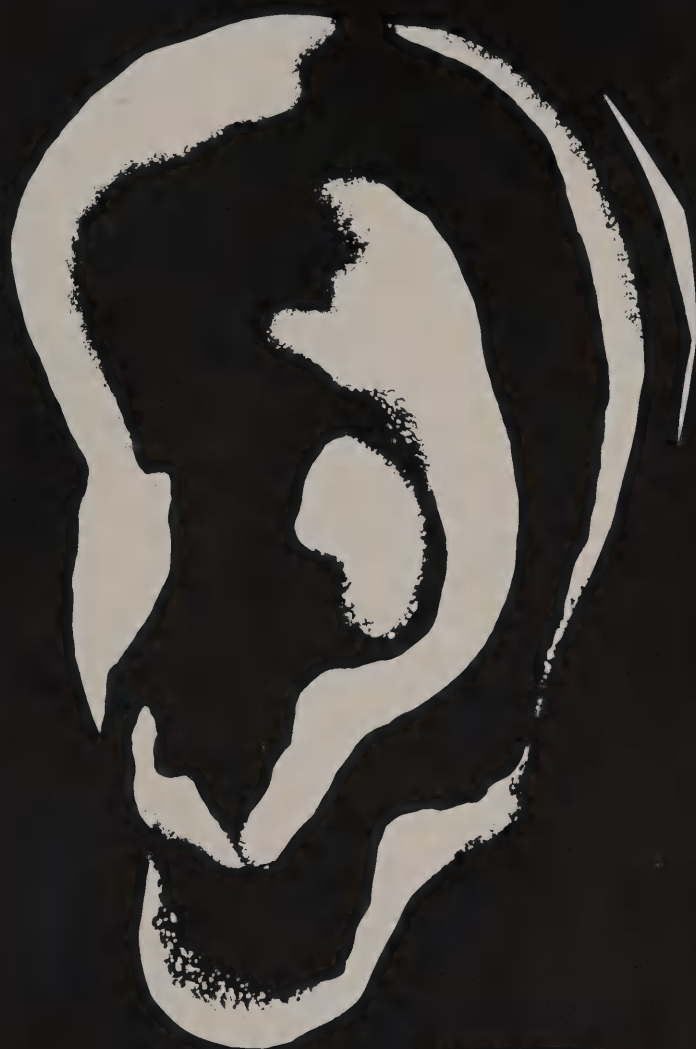

The "Men and Issues" class hold a mock United Nations meeting to solve the world's problems.

For Rooting and Tooting

To augment the Pep Club and add to the racket, the Molly Maguires, an all male rooting squad, emerged this year.

Lynn Bilodeau and Benny Bravo display the "Molly Maguires" standard.

Governor David Hall and Student Council President Rick Ditmars get the MHS Olympics underway with the lighting of the olympic torch on the steps of the state capitol building.

1971 McGUINNESS OLYMPICS

Senator Fred Harris was invited to address the students at the opening olympic assembly.

Tom Wolf hands the torch to Susan Sine, the first MHS girl to carry the torch.

While John Mead is shooting the torch runners, he gets shot by Jim Kosciuk.

Father Monahan, Mr. Ginsterblum, Vicki Miles, Rick Ditmars, and Mr. Ellet await the arrival of the olympic banners.

In the olympic bowl contest the Greens beat the Whites. Each team was composed of one Senior, Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman.

Sister Charlotte Rorhbach checks Mike Kennedy near Lake Hefner during the olympic fourteen mile hike.

"Gosh! A knowledge of Math sure comes in handy when all these scores have to be tallied," says Elaine Carey. Marcia Sine, Jan Venard, Susie Shea, and Mr. Ellet agree.

Energetic hike runners, Bob Srite and Mark Lazarra.

That hot dog looks good to Mr. Malone and Phil Askew.

Talent and Skill Contests

Mike Moran ponders his next move in the semifinal chess game with Andrew Dodge.

Jill Milligan in a modern dance routine "Come Together."

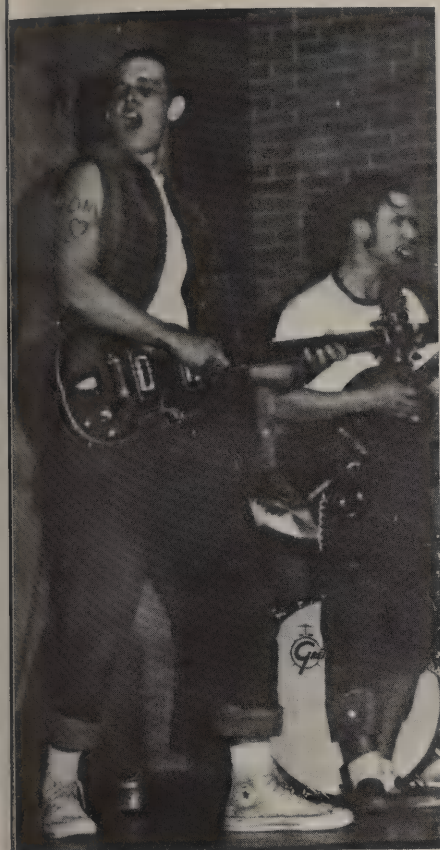

Rick Ditmars' guitar solo was the classical "Trieste Sanctuario."

Pat Smith proved himself an expert on the Drums.

Tim Lyon and Charles Strauch in "Purple People Eater," old fashioned jazz of the '50's.

Tony Lamell's piano solo is the Third Movement of Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata.

"Fire and Rain" was David Hall's and Pat McGuigan's selection.

An original interpretation of "Lonesome City" by Jill Milligan and Marilyn Brown.

Roundballers Tops

Unprecedented success marked the 1971 season for the Irish Roundballers. In addition to twenty wins and only seven losses, they carried the conference, as well as the regional and the area regional, and dropped the state semi-finals by one point. This also was the first year that the team was invited to take part in the Tournament of Champions, held in Tulsa. Two members of the team won special recognition — Mike Davis received honorable mention, and Jim Grace was selected for all-state.

Girls' Sports

Under the leadership of Mr. T. P. Kierl the defunct girls' Basketball team was reactivated this year. The team regularly had fifteen members. They played 23 games, going into the district tournament with even wins and losses, and with a starting team of four sophomores and 2 freshmen. Coach Kierl has every reason to be proud of his team.

Golf, Track, Tennis

Golf team: John Morgan, Bill Shoptaugh, Mike Davis, Lon Kile, and Coach Don Piccolo.

In both the Capital Conference tournament and the regionals, the Irish golf team had an outstanding record. Medalist honors went to Mike Davis whose score secured second place in the Conference and helped the team to qualify for state, where they came in fourth.

In the invitational tournament held in El Reno, the Irish came first. At the regional matches played in Guthrie, Mike Davis and Bill Shoptaugh took "two-ball" honors. Third was John Morgan who shot 162 and Lon Kile, 166. Dan Blubaugh finished the 27 holes with 173. Of the three top teams the Irish were second.

Tennis included both girls' and boys' teams this year. The girls played in the Northeast tournament in Midwest City, where they faced Casady, Northwest, Edmond, Northeast, Capitol Hill, and Midwest City. Mary G. Walker placed third in singles, the highest in overall competition.

Six girls composed the team: Mary G. Walker, Jan Venard, Mary Perrault, Mary Venard, Carolyn Barber, and Beth Kraemer.

Unfortunately a picture was not available for either the boys' or girls' teams.

The boys' team took seventh place in the state tourney.

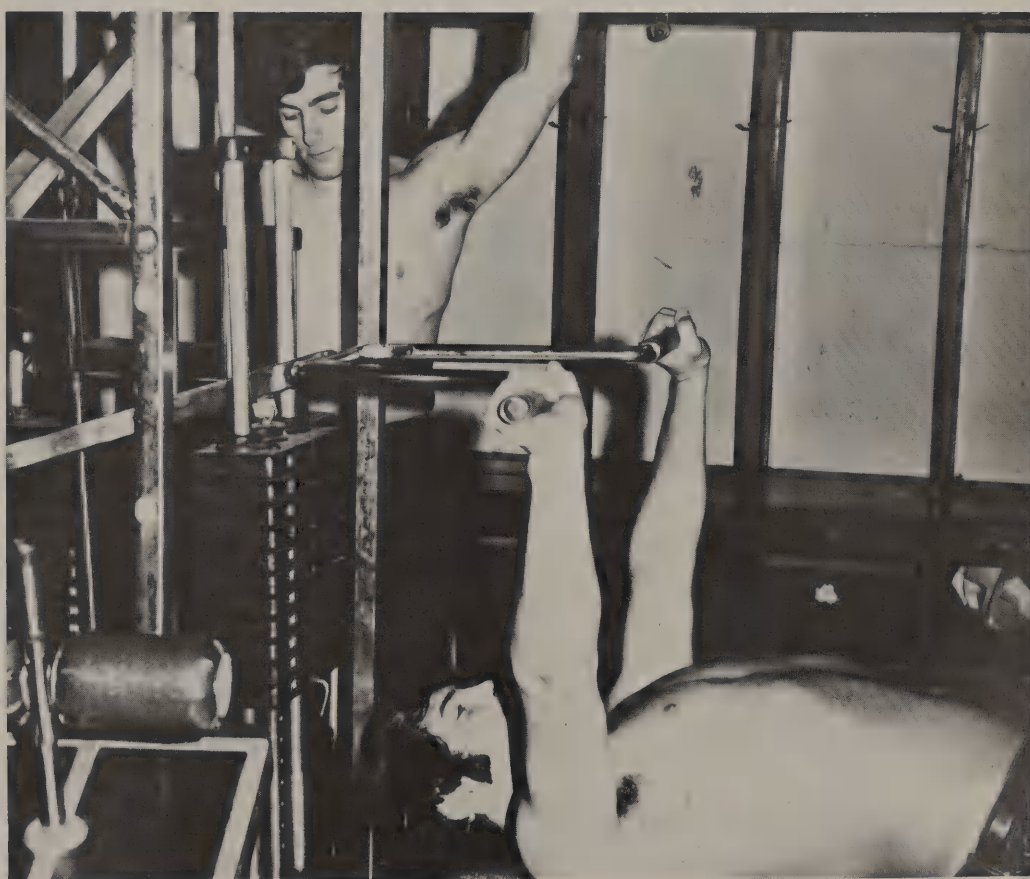

Charles Atkins, high-jumping state champion.

Mr. Don Piccolo, all-city basketball coach of the year.

McGuinness track team participated in the regional meet at Del City on May 7. The high jump performance of Charles Atkins took him to the state meet where he placed second. Under Coach Jack Dees, Charles placed in every meet and tournament this year. He placed first in the conference and regional, and broke the school record — six feet, six inches — also this year.

Non-competitive sport, casually known as Phys. Ed., also gets recognition at MHS. Weight-lifting, such as Charles Cotter and Tom Wolf are engaged in here, is a favorite.

"Something to Remember"

Ramona Sirois and John Morgan, Melissa Ryan and Mark Robbins slow dance, at the prom.

David Lukeman's date is Holly Hamilton of Putnam City High; Kathy Mackey is with Roger Otis of Eufala, Okla.

MHS girls, Susan Walker and Susan Moran, with Bill Rountree, N. W. Classen and Alan DeVore, OSU, pose with Ramona Sirois and John Morgan.

"Has anyone seen Ross?" asks Patti McLaughlin.

Peggy Mink and escort Mike Hamilton.

Linda Faulkner and escort David Boatman.

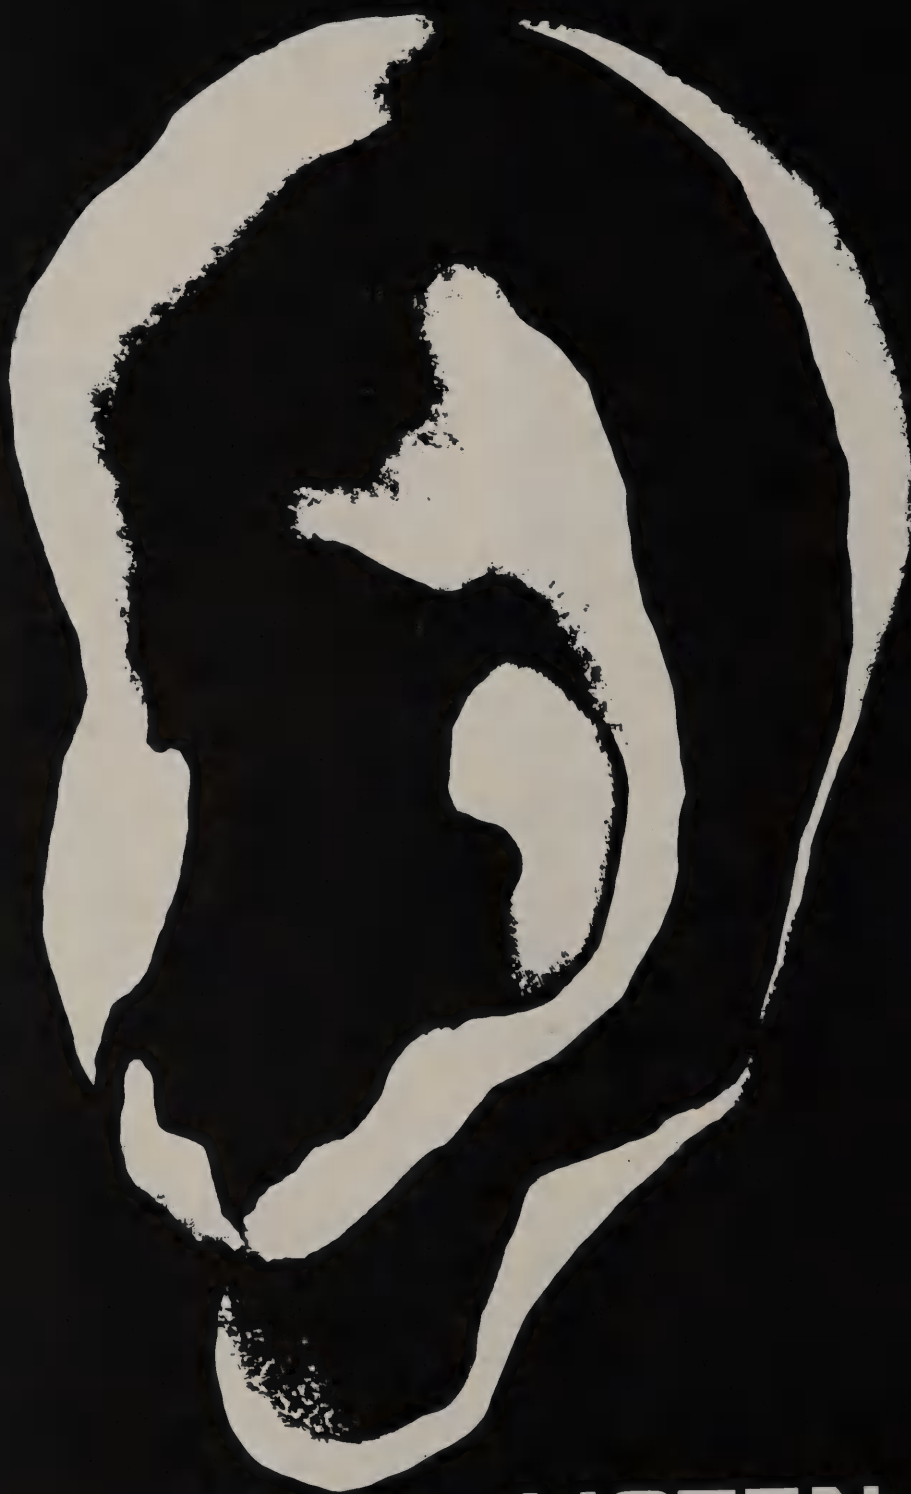

"Something to Remember" was the theme of the Junior-Senior Prom, held in the evening of May 8, in the mirror room of the Civic Center Music Hall. Surrounded by a decor of green and blue, the promsters danced to the romantic and rock music of "The Foxxe."

Chi Rhoan staff members, Susan Moran, Linda Faulkner, Maureen Mulcahy, Jim Grace, and Susan Sine fraternize at the prom.

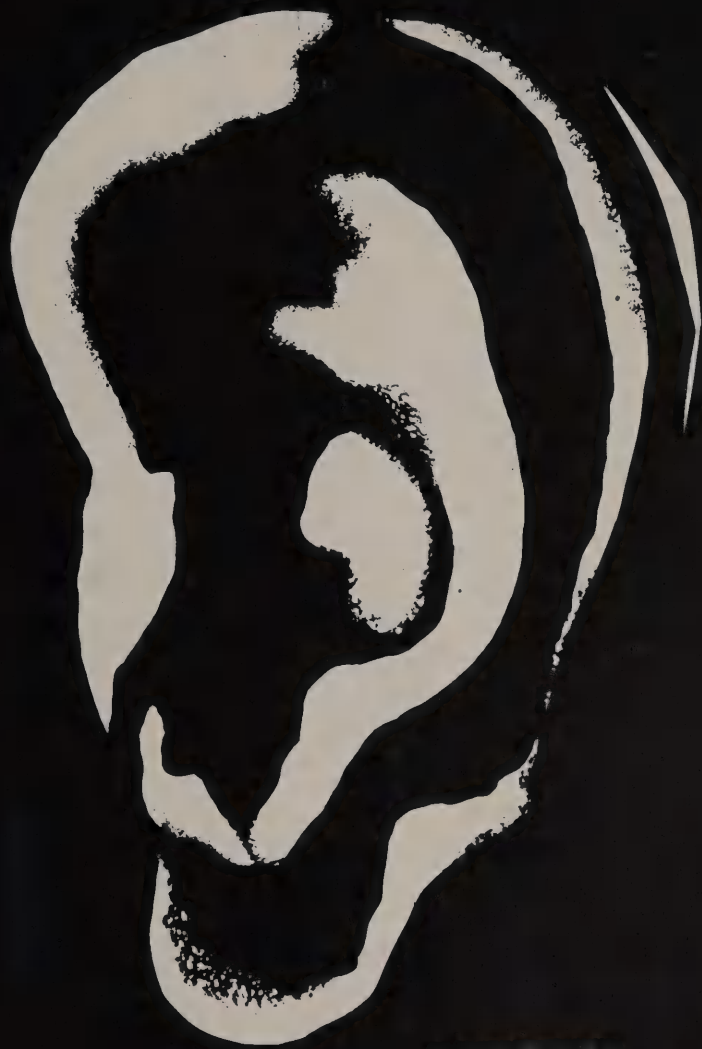

Kathy Mulcahy and Mike Humphrey sit out a dance.

OKLAHOMA'S OLDEST JEWELERS

Patty McLaughlin and Dianne Brown, selling tickets for the ONE ACTS Drama, are obviously more interested in the money than in the customer.

"Education Is Not Preparation for Life, Education Is Life Itself"

rather try to become a man of value."

Chi Rho and Chi Rhoan Staffs

CHI RHO photographer, John Mead, inserts a negative in the Omega enlarger.

"Bye Bye Birdie"

Teenagers in Sweetapple, Ohio, gossip about the romance between Kim McAfee and Hugo Peabody.

"Is it true that Conrad Birdie is still drinking?" asks one of the reporters.

Rose Alvarez (Debbie Bolka) sings to Albert Peterson (Paul Sprehe) "Why can't you be an English teacher"?

The wounded lover, Hugo Peabody, (Tom McAbey) socks it to Conrad Birdie (John Jewell) while his girl friend Kim McAfee (Kathy Mackey) screams in protest.

Mae Peterson (Dee Dee Perkins) lets Rose know that she's not in favor of her marrying Albert.

Drama and More Drama

Harry McAfee (Jim Grace) hams it up on the 'Ed Sullivan Show' while Conrad Birdie sings "One Last Kiss" to Harry's daughter Kim.

In a one-act play, "The Telltale Heart," two nosey neighbors interrogate the "MAN" about his previous night's activities.

Vice Principal, Mr. Neil Ginsterblum, was Master of ceremonies.

McGuinness Graduates 144

"Message through the Media" was the theme of the Graduation Exercises on May 25. Father David Monahan, retiring Principal was the principal speaker; Mr. Neil Ginsterblum, Vice Principal was master of ceremonies. Shot by the students, the movie "Anybody Know What Time It Is?" was presented as an interpretation of the students' view of life in the world today. Ten of the 144 seniors were First Honor Students, graduating with a 3.5 or better grade average. Ninety-five percent of the class intend to continue their education through college; the remaining five percent have opted to enter the business world immediately.

KELLY DOUGHERTY — Salutatorian

ALICE MURRAY — Valedictorian

Larry Bachle receives his diploma from Mr. William Nashert, President of the MHS Board of Directors.

Suum Cuique (To Each His Own)

Sister Elizabeth McAlister addresses an MHS assembly on civil disobedience as a means to protect civil rights.

Dr. Robert Jones, Rev. William King, Atty. Jim Kelly, and Father Monahan formed a panel to comment on Sister Elizabeth's theories on civil rights.

In "An Occurrence at Owl Creek Bridge" the Wife (Mary Jane Rueb) tells her husband, Peyton Farquhar, (Mike Humphrey), "You have given enough; you don't have to give your life."

Miss Jana Laham, Drama teacher, and her date gaze nostalgically at the Queens' Players awards banquet. Jim Shriver looks thoughtful too.

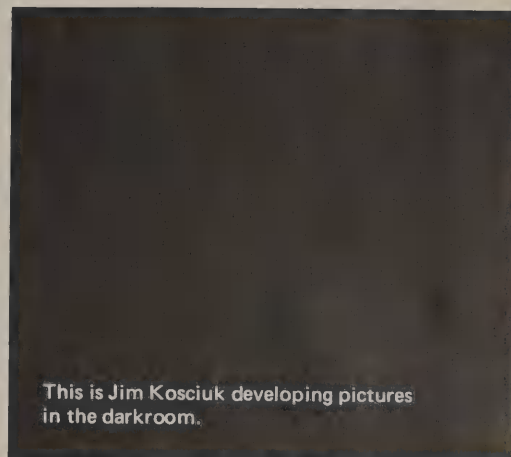

Susan Moran, a fourteen year ballet student, appearing here in "Swan Lake," teaches ballet at the YWCA, as a public service.

These are a few of the children at Mark Twain School to whom John Mead taught Drama twice a week.

MHS students devoted time and energy outside school hours to helping disadvantaged children, visiting hospital patients, and service activities around the school, above and beyond the call of duty.

This is Jim Kosciuk developing pictures in the darkroom.

Carol O'Connor, first female manager of the boys' Basketball team was really busy.

As part of their Junior-Senior service, Maureen Malcahy and Patti McLaughlin visit a Northwest Classen student at V.A. Hospital.

Student photographer, John Mead, who shot most of the pictures in this volume, designed the cover and division pages which set the theme, Listen . . .

please listen to what's not being said
listen with your heart that's the only thing that will save us all from ourselves
please move yourself to hear something that you never had attempted to hear before
please don't close .
the door before you actually know what's coming through if i fail to listen
if you fail to listen
if we continue to leave our minds as they are and never endeavor to unfold them
then we have already ceased to exist

To Julia a great real who borrowed my book from during 8th grade.
 Good Luck
 Patti

Julia
 nice tag cute again!

Love
 Janie

Julia, mad we never got in the name English class.
 oh well, next year, good luck
 Karen

Dear Germie,
 (that's German-ize)
 Theology was lot's of fun!

I hope were in more classes together next year!

P.S. I couldn't forget English your cake was good too!

Dear Dunkin

Hines!

Angie

Julia,

How ~~to~~^{are} Nancy & Maggie?
I glad I've gotten to know you better here at school. You're really Sweet!

Love Ya
Suzette

P.S. Remember
We're all going to
Fla. next summer!

Oh a really nice gal.
Hope you learn to fly
as good as the birds.
Mary.
